1	the country workshop addresses country specific issues and gives participants an opportunity to relate to their own situation	3/25/2019 8:33 AM
2	I appreciated the way the training was delivered in a simple and practical manner making it easy to understand a topic which I considered very technical.	3/21/2019 10:42 AM
3	How I wish many CSO could get a handle on this kind of programming & methodology. For a long time, our CSO have thought of advocacy as picketing and confrontational politics but changing tact is super good - it is wise, prudent and effective & efficient in resource utilization and above all with a possibility of having the policy suggestion accepted and worked on.	3/20/2019 10:30 AM
4	The country workshop was a very useful sharing event and interaction between participants. But should increase beyond the workshops	3/18/2019 1:25 PM
5	Sessions that had experience sharing including with the women from laikipia and the CEC from kiambu were the best approach	3/18/2019 10:41 AM

1	the choice of the guest speakers was well done as some of them earlier served in the civil society and others were lecturers so they fitted well in the program and helped the participants to see where entry points when it comes to engaging	3/25/2019 8:44 AM

3	The media speaker was much talkative (taking much time talking on himself) but indeed was interesting. The community group was an added value, of course would have been better the meet them in their own community!	3/18/2019 1:30 PM
4	They were carefully selected and relevant to the training.	3/18/2019 10:45 AM
5	We could consider bringing in more of them	3/18/2019 10:40 AM
6	The media speaker was kind enough to give us a free consultation for our organization which will be of great help	3/18/2019 10:37 AM
7	Media personnel was consumed by his own qualifications and barely met his target. time vs agenda items on his part was a mismatch	3/18/2019 10:37 AM
